The Humble

ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal

In PARLIAMENT Aſſembled.

Die Mercurii 16°. Feb. 1697.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Aſſembled, having taken into Our Conſideration the great Interruption that hath happened to the Trade of this Nation, during the late Long and Expenſive War, whereby the Manufactures of this Kingdom have greatly Suffered for want of the uſual Exportation of the ſame; Do moſt humbly Beſeech Your Majeſty, for the future Encouragement of the Growth of the Commodities of this Kingdom, and the Manufactures thereof, That You would be Graciouſly Pleaſed, by Your Own Royal Example, Effectually to Encourage the Uſe and Wearing of all Sorts of Furniture, or Wearing Clothes that are of the Growth of this Kingdom, or Manufactured here, and to Diſcountenance all Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall Wear or Uſe any Manufactures of Foreign Countries, as a Matter of great Conſequence to the Good of this Kingdom, and abſolutely Neceſſary to the Support and Livelihood of great Numbers of Your Majeſties Induſtrious and Loyal Subjects.

Matth. Johnſon,
Cleric' Parliamentor'

His Majeſties moſt Gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs.

THat He Himſelf would give the Example to His Subjects, and would Endeavour to make it Effectually followed.

FINIS.
